those spiritual forces, whose potency lies in exalting the character of the individual, and in elevating the tone of national life, and on which alone we must depend for the real progress of the human race?

Let me, in conclusion, present this last point in the words of one of the noblest and most gifted women of our English-speaking race—Elizabeth Barrett Browning:

“ If we tread the deeps of ocean, if we strike the stars in rising,
If we wrap the globe intensely in one hot electric breath—
'Tis but power within our tether—no new spirit-power comprising,
And we are not greater men in life, nor bolder men in death.”
